

Action on Kleindienst Slowed

WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP) — The Senate majority leader, Mike Mansfield, said today that Richard G. Kleindienst's nomination to be Attorney General could be taken up in the Senate when action on a State Department, financing bill was completed. Senator Mansfield, Democrat of Montana, said he did not know when that bill would be disposed of but he expressed doubt that it would be this week.