

San Diego to Be Paid For Convention Costs

SAN DIEGO, July 4 (AP)— Mayor Pete Wilson says that $159,000 in Federal funds will be given to San Diego to help pay costs in preparing for the Republican National Convention that was later moved to Miami Beach, Fla.

Mr. Wilson said that a team of auditors from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration had come up with the figure. "That amount will be forthcoming," he said yesterday.