

The Same Route

Washington

The owner of the Mayaguez has sent her sister ship, the Ponce, to follow the same course the Mayaguez was on when she was captured by the Cambodians.

The Ponce left Hong Kong

on Wednesday for Sattahip, Thailand, with a load of containers, intending to sail the same route that the Sealand Service, Inc., has sailed since 1972, company officials said yesterday.

She is scheduled to dock in Sattahip on Monday.

Washington Post
