

As It Happens

Hokinson lady overheard at a U.N. cocktail party: "Are you an emerging nation?"

✓ ✓ ✓

The State Department spokesman says no matter what de Gaulle does we will stand behind France. Danger in standing behind France is, you might get backed into.

✓ ✓ ✓

The small stockholder, who got out of the market in May 1962 when the Dow Jones industrials dropped below 600, started coming back in when the averages passed 800. Once again, the little fellow is consistent. Buys high and sells low.

✓ ✓ ✓

The Americans want more freedom in sex. The British wonder if there isn't too much freedom in sex. The French are satisfied the way things are.

✓ ✓ ✓

Producers who claim a Times review can put you out of business should remember Billy Rose. The Times blasted most everything Billy produced and today he has 80,000 shares of AT&T.

✓ ✓ ✓

The swimming pool industry reports its biggest year. Soon you'll be able to cross America by canoe, with occasional portage.

✓ ✓ ✓

A child whose parents are ardent patrons of art theaters was taken to his first English-language movie and cried: "Where are the subtitles?"

✓ ✓ ✓

Skeptics: Four out of ten people polled still believe there was a connection between Jack Ruby and Lee Oswald. The same percentage probably believes that there are flying saucers. That Bruno Richard Hauptmann was framed. That Hitler is alive. That the budget will be balanced.

✓ ✓ ✓

The sale of surfboards is expected to break all records in July and August. If this continues, as many people will be going into traction during the summer as during the winter.

—FRED SPARKS.

SATURDAY REVIEW, May 2, 1964

received Apr. 27 or 28

first AP story on UFO landing
at Socorro, N.M., Apr. 26