

1973

~~NY Times NOV 24 1973~~
Microfilm on Kennedy's Life
To Be Presented to Library

WALTHAM, Mass., Nov. 22—
Nineteen rolls of microfilm representing more than 30,000 newspaper clippings on the career of President Kennedy are to be presented to the Kennedy Memorial Library next month by a Waltham man.

James J. Fahey, 54 years old, author of "Pacific War Diary," began filing clippings on Mr. Kennedy when the late President first ran for Congress.

The first set of microfilm was donated to the Library of Congress and other sets will be sold.