
Cuban Exile Troop Claim

Miami

Alpha 66, the controversial Cuban exile organization, yesterday rebutted claims by the Fidel Castro regime and declared it has several guerilla forces fighting in that island nation.

The Miami-based group furnished newsmen with photographs of members of two exile contingents it said had infiltrated eastern Cuba early this month from the Bahama Islands.

The pictures showed combat-garbed men undergoing training and participating in a pre-invasion ceremony with Alpha 66 officials.
