

Exiles, Cars Shot At

Miami

Gunfire early yesterday riddled the parked cars of four leaders of the Cuban exile organization Alpha 66, a group dedicated to the armed overthrow of Cuban Premier Fidel Castro.

No one was injured. Police were investigating.

Alpha spokesmen blamed terrorists they said were trying to intimidate the movement's officials.

Associated Press