ST. LOUIS (AP)-A federal judge dismissed today a $2 million libel suit filed by former Reversal s Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker against the Pulitzer Publishing Asked by AP Co., publisher of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

result of dispatches about Walker's activities on the University of Mississippi campus in 1962.
Walker was present when rioting broke out in the wake of the admission of a Negro,
James H. Meredith, to the university

Petitioning the high court for review, The AP yesterday said the judgment directly conflicts with the Supreme Court's decision June 12 which threw out a $500,000 judgment Walker had won against The AP in a

The Supreme Court in reversing the judgment against The Associated Press, said there was not "the slightest hint of a severe departure from accepted publishing standards in the way The Associated Press reported Walker's activities . ."

In dismissing the suit against The AP in a Texas court.

The suits were based on AP accounts of Walker's activities at the University of Mississippi during 1962 disorders accompanying admission of James Meredith, a Negro, to the university.

The court, now recessed, will

In dismissing the suit against the St. Louis newspaper, Judge tharper said the Post-Dispatch tip an effort to inform the suit against act on the petition when it returns this fall. "in an effort to inform the public as soon as possible, relied on news releases published by reputable national news sources. This they had every right to do and in so doing they cannot be held guilty of actual malice in failing to further investigate the truth or falsity of facts supplied concerning an incident which occurred many miles away.

"For the foregoing reason, uine issue on which a trial could be necessary," Harper held.

Walker Suit

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Post-Dispatch.
U.S. Dist. Court Judge Roy Harper said he was guided by the U.S. Supreme Court's June 12 decision voiding a $500,000
libel judgment against The Associated Press.
Both suits were filed as a result of dispatches about Walker's activities on the University.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Associated Press has asked the Supreme Court to summarily rewerse a Louisiana court judgment awarding former Maj.
Gen. Edwin A. Walker $75,000 in damages from The AP and The Times-Picayune Publishing Corp.
Petitioning the high court for