
Johnson Threat Brings Jail

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., June 29
(AP)—A fireman stationed at Knoxville's airport was jailed here and charged with threatening the life of President Johnson, the Secret Service said Tuesday. Paul Doster, Secret Service agent-in-charge in Nashville, said Joseph Anthony Clarke, 34 years old, of Mentor, Tenn., was arrested late yesterday. A preliminary hearing is scheduled July 7.
