

MRS. KENNEDY'S VIEW ON DALLAS IS GIVEN

DALLAS, May 14 (UPI)—Mrs. John F. Kennedy bears no ill-feeling toward the city where her husband was slain by her side, a brother-in-law of the late President said today.

She favors a memorial to President Kennedy in Dallas as long as it is "modest and dignified," although her main interest is in the proposed John Fitzgerald Kennedy Memorial Library at Harvard.

Stephen E. Smith of New York, whose wife is Jean Kennedy, one of the late President's sisters, said he had no ill-feeling about Dallas, either.

"I have been here twice since the President's death," Mr. Smith said. "My visits here have been moving experiences."

Mr. Smith is treasurer of the library to be built with publicly subscribed funds.

He has met in Dallas with a committee that plans a memorial near the spot where the assassin fired three shots last Nov. 22. He was asked at a news conference about a report that Mrs. Kennedy was against a Dallas memorial.

"Mrs. Kennedy, because of the President's deep interest in the library, felt that primary interest should be centered in it," Mr. Smith said. "But she is not opposed to a Dallas memorial."
