

AP

Misc - Study Groups

19 Aug 72

□ filed
WC/Archives

Story on address given at conference of Rocky Mountain Radiological Society 18 Aug 72, Denver, by Dr. Russell H. Morgan, radiologist, dean of medical school, Johns Hopkins University. Had seen autopsy x-rays; says bullet entered skull at point about four inches higher than that given in Warren Report.

Morgan: "The Warren Commission's diagnosis was correct, even though the evidence cited was inconsistent."