

from column of Jack Anderson:

N. O. STATES

DECEMBER 3, 1969

ATTORNEY GENERAL
John Mitchell, the champion of law and order, has laid down the law and established more order in his own home. He has quietly clamped a muzzle on his wife, the blonde and bubbly Martha Mitchell, who implied on television that her husband would rather deal with Russian Communists than American liberals. Her husband not only won't let her give out any more interviews; he won't even permit her to pose for pictures.

Martha Mitchell