SHULTZ TO HEAD

ardson as his successor in the Cabinet post. confirmation of Elliot L. Rich-House staff after the expected Continued From Page 1, Co. 8 efficiency to the operation the Federal bureaucracy. domestic programs, whereas Mr. Shultz and the Office of sponsible for Council would be primarily responsible for the creation of The White House said Mr. Ehrchallenged authority in isting programs and bringing be charged with monitoring ex-Mr. Shultz and lichman and the Domestic domestic policy-making field today exercised virtually unwith Mr. Ehrlichman, who until Management and Budget would Mr. Shultz will share power Federal bureaucracy. the 2

Powerful Role Seen

creation of policy. play a powerful role in Few observers here doubted time the so on numerous occasions. He helped devise the Administrathe Philadelphia Plan for hiring ion's welfare program, rescued Indeed, he has already done otherwise and imaginative Administration. reputation expected to Mr. Finch and Mr. Shultz are Both the Office of Managemestic Council were suggested man's Domestic Council, which sunswept ment and Budget and the Dothe chairman of Mr. Ehrlichtions July 1.

The New Lines of Authority Under White

The New York Times

impending Congressional de Commission on Executive Or to the President—Mr. Finch, Mr. Mr. Shultz would rectain and played a key role in ganization, appointed in April, Mayo, Bryce N. Harlow and and "streamline" Gover the recent struggle to persuade 1969, and headed by Roy L. Ash, Daniel Patrick Moynihan—as "bringing real business the President to spend $1.5- president of Litton Industries. well as all Cabinet members agement into Government billion on school desegregation.

As a result, he has achieved sent a reorganization message and Defense.

When proposed in Mara the hard-core unemployed from to Mr. Nixon by an Advisory will include the four Counselors intive man in an lever responsive and effectors.

This group will evaluate pol- reorganization plan was designed in the interest of icy proposals from the agencies scribed by both Mr. Nixon and singer's National Security Councillor, will go from $42,500 and fairly conservative a more responsive and effectors.

The council will be sup-effort to allow the delegation while the four requiring senate operating, although it is ex-fondiment.

The Ash Commission is still nomination. He is the only one operating, although it is ex-fondiment.

experts in Mr. Shultz's Office of information system keeps him o fevaluating sive voices in the deliverations Senate opposed the plan, and cadre of young assistants, exwithin Mr. Nixon's official fam-both offices will begin opera-perts in the departments and are carefully coordinated, whose Mr. Nixon will technically be Management and Budget.

House Reorganization Plan

M—Secretary of Housing and Urban Development George Romney, N—Secretary of Transportation John A. Volpe; O—Vice President Agnew; P—Domestic Council; John Ehrlichman, director, with following members: President Nixon, Mr. Agnew, Mr. Hardin, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stans, Mr. Richardson, Mr. Romey, Mr. Hickel, Mr. Hodgson, Mr. Volpe, Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Shultz; Q—National Security Council, Henry A. Kissinger, Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs, with following Members: President Nixon; Mr. Agnew, Mr. Rogers; Mr. Laird; George A. Lincolin director, Office of Emergency Preparedness; and following members by invitation: Mr. Mitchell; Richard Helms, director of Central Indirector, Office of Emergency Preparedness; and following members telligence; Mr. Shultz; Adm. Thomas Moorer, chairman, of Staff; R.—White House Chief of Staff, H. R. Haldeman; Security Council of Economic Advisers, Paul W. McCracken, chairman; U—Counselor to the President, Bryce N. Harlow; W—Counselor to the President, Daniel P. Moynihan; Y—Mr. Helms; Z—Office of Economic Opportunity director, In the president of the President, Bryce N. Harlow; W—Counselor to th Government operations, as illustrated by solid lines, and participate in policy-making bodies, connected on chart by broken lines. Following is a key to the lettered blocks: A—President Nixon, B—Office of Management and Budget, Mr. Shultz, director; C—Secretary of State William P. Rogers; D—Secretary of the Treasury David M. Kennedy; E—Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird; F—Attorney General John N. Mitchell; G—Postmaster General Winton M. Blount; H—Secretary of the Interior Walter J. Hickel; I—Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin; J—Secretary of Commerce Maurice H. Stans; K—Secretary of Labor James Hodgson; I—Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Elliot I. Richardson; Under Administration changes, George P. Shultz, reassigned by the President from Secretary of Labor to director of the Office of Management and Budget, will direct a major stare of day-to-day of Management and Budget, will direct a major and newthenate Rumsfeld.

Nixon himself raised the ques-authority with Office of Management and the time. tion of whether or into Government at the departments. business man-

During brief remarks in the organizational assignments are unswept rose garden, Mr. plainly set out, can delegate adequately informed, and whose apparatus to the Offic organizational assignments are Management and Budget.

not the confidence," Mr. Nixon said at ised to security and top of too many layers already." Budget would become "just an- There are observers who would suggest a departure date other layer of Government on thought then and who continue of sometime early next year, top of too many layers already." to believe now that the new after budget for the fiscal 1972 When proposed in March, the eign policy, which is shaped for ed to have won the endorse Ehrlichman—a firmer hold over tainly been the case with For-This has cer- California.

"A President whose programs pected eventually to go out of business and turn over its task o fevaluating the Government Office of the commission

VIA FRESH AIR FUND. GIVE A KID A CAMP cial groups are now examining possible reorganizations in the agencies dealing pollution efforts, a crime, international trade, ernment programs dealing with recommended regulatory agencies and in Gova reordering its study SO.

visers; David M. Kennedy, Secof the Council of Economic Ad-Mayo on the so-called "quateriad" of top-level economic advisers. The other members are the Federal Reserve Board. aretary of the Treasury, a Arthur F. Burns, chairman Paul W. McCracken, chairman al programs, and drug abuse. Mr. Shultz will replace Mr. the Treasury, and will accept a pay cut fr $60,000 to $42,500 annually. net rank, as will Mr. Finch, but Shultz's new duties will cost him money. He will retain Cabiis true of Mr. Finch, Pay Cuts For Two Mr

Mr. Mayo's salary will remain the same — $42,500. He will advise the President on he would not long remain Washington. but there were some hints that economic and other matters, Ħ

Mr. Mayo had originally promtwo Mr. Nixon told newsmen that to remain only through "budget cycles," which of Finance for the State of Mr. Hodgson, who is report-

No replacement has yet been found for Mr. Weinberger.

SHULTZ HEADS NEW AGENCY REPLACING BUDGET BUREAU; FINCH DISMISSES DR. ALLEN

George P. Shultz with the President at White House ceremony at which Mr. Nixon told of new posts for Mr. Shultz and other officials in presence of members of their families.

2D CABINET SHIFT

Hodgson Gets Labor Job—Ehrlichman in Key Domestic Post

By ROBERT B. SEMPLE Jr. Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, June 10-President Nixon today named George P. Shultz, the Secretary of Labor, as director of the new and powerful Office of Management and Budget. It was the second major cabinet change in less than a week.

The move could make Mr. Shultz one of the three or four most influential figures in the Government. He has won the President's respect in a series of internal struggles and legislative battles.

The new Office of Manage-ment and Budget will replace the Bureau of the Budget, taking over responsibility for preparing the annual budget.

Management Role

The new agency will also assume extensive management responsibilities, including monitoring the performance of Cabinet officials, their departments and their programs. These functions would give Mr. Shultz-and, by extension, the President - substantial operating authority over the individual Cabinet departments.

Mr. Shultz will move into his new job July 1. The position does not require Senate confirmation.

As the face of Mr. Nixon's Administration continued to change, the White House announced these other moves:

¶James D. Hodgson, Under Secretary of Labor, was nominated to succeed Mr. Shultz as Secretary.

¶John D. Ehrlichman, Assistant to the President for Domestic Affairs, will become the executive director of the new Domestic Council, which will set policy in the domestic field.

¶Caspar W. Weinberger, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, will join Mr. Shultz at the Office of Management and budget as deputy director with primary responsibility for the budget.

¶Robert P. Mayo, who has been director of the Budget Bureau, will join the White House staff as Counselor to the President.

Finch Shifted

Last Saturday, in the earlier major Cabinet shift, Mr. Nixon named Robert H. Finch, the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, to a post with the same title as Mr. Mayo's.

Today, Mr. Finch, who has not yet changed jobs, dismissed Dr. James E. Allen, the Commissioner of Education. This was not unexpected, although some observers were surprised that Dr. Allen, an outspoken critic of the Cambodian incursion, had not tendered his resignation before Mr. Finch felt compelled to ask for it.

Mr. Finch will join the White Continued on Page 37, Column 3