

Martha Mitchell On Cover of Life

Washington

Martha Mitchell has made the cover of next week's Life Magazine, much to her delight.

The wife of Attorney General John N. Mitchell had been a candidate for the cover two weeks ago but lost out to Angela Davis, a militant black who was put on the FBI's ten most wanted list.

"I'm almost excited," Mrs. Mitchell told a reporter yesterday. "I've made the front of Life Magazine."

She said she hadn't seen the picture they will use yet "but they took a lot when I was in San Clemente."

Life said Mrs. Mitchell would appear on the cover of the October 2 edition which appears on most stands next Monday.
