
Mitchell Leaves Behind
His 'Unguided Missile'

RENO, Nev., Oct. 8 (UPI)
—Attorney General John N. Mitchell's wife, Martha, was ill yesterday and was unable to accompany him here for a speech.

"I'm afraid my unguided missile has run out of fuel," Mr. Mitchell said.

"I'd like to deny a rumor she had to stay in Washington to help the President write his speech," he said, "but no doubt he heard from her by telephone sometime tonight."
