

SFChronicle JUL 9 1971
Kissinger
In Pakistan
For Talks

Islamabad

Henry A. Kissinger, White House security affairs adviser, arrived in Pakistan yesterday for talks with President Agha Mohammad Yahya Khan.

Kissinger came from New Delhi, where Indian leaders urged that all U.S. military and economic aid be cut off from the regime of Yahya Khan.

United Press

Kissinger expected to arrive in Paris night of 10 July. See SFChronicle 9 Jul 71, filed POWs.