onservative leaders Jump Mi

Eleven leaders of conserva- tive Party, the executive an act of loyalty to the Nixon initiated and will intensify a WASHINGTON - (AP) - of the New York Conserva- It claimed the defection "is planned trip to China, "has "done in the absence of any support of the Nixon admin-China to American and westand publications said today public concessions by Red istration.

Mediterranean and to warn against West German poliern causes." call public attention to the arms" and what it called Soviet advances into the Nixon failures to respond to in conventional and strategic deteriorated military position It also cited "his failure to chairman and vice chairman The signers included the

Their statement criticized three top officials of the protests."

Nixon overtures to Red China National Review, including The statement criticized three top officials of the protests." tive political organizations director of the Young Ameri- we supported in 1968." The domestic strategy of conservthey are suspending their cans for Freedom, two offi-signers said they would seek ative appearement." Buckley Jr. National Review, including editor - in - chief William F. cers of the American Con- out others to decide how best the next months." ries, but we propose to keep of political developments in mollify conservative critiin the forthcoming prima- newsletter of the Democratic courage formal political opall options open in the light position to President Nixon not plan at the moment to en-The statement said "We do servative Union and the to "effectively register our touched on domestic matters, tendencies of the administration in foreign policy." significance alongside the but said these "pale into in-The statement briefly tended the administration, to National Committee, concism of the President's At the same time, FACT, a