

McGovern Would Go to

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Sen. George McGovern, hailing a "comfortable and decisive" victory in California, pledged today that if elected President he would go to Hanoi, Paris or "anywhere in the world" to reach agreement with North Vietnam for an end to the war and release of U.S. prisoners.

"There isn't the slightest doubt in my mind that I could talk to the leaders of that government and work out arrangements for ending the war and releasing our prisoners that would be fully acceptable to the American people," he told a news conference.

He repeated his pledge to end U.S. involvement in Vietnam and get American prisoners released within 90 days of assuming the presidency and said he would be willing to go to Hanoi "if I can do anything that will shorten the war by 24 hours."

McGovern said he had just received a phone call from Sen. Hubert Humphrey, whom he defeated in yesterday's California primary, and added he looks forward to "further discussion" with Humphrey.

He said he has no intention to press either Humphrey or Sen. Edmund Muskie to withdraw from the race for the Democratic presidential nomination, but made it clear he would be receptive if they bring up that possibility.

Hanoi

He also said he plans to confer with Alabama Gov. George Wallace, who remains hospitalized in Springs, Md., and will make