Five men arrested for breaking into the headquarters of the Democratic National Committee in Washington.   Material on this filed separately.