

President Nixon chose to be far from the hectic, overheated air of Miami Beach yesterday. He relaxed in the verdant, quiet Camp David retreat in Maryland where photographer found him with King Timahoe, his Irish setter.