Nixon Sole Authority in War'--Agnew

By Patrick J. Sloyan

how the United States gets ing on the great debate over has given one of the more coming campaign hoopla, may be overshadowed in the significant speeches focus-Vice President Spiro Agnew CHICAGO - Although it in foreign war in the nuclean President acting alone withmust decide the nation's fate out congressional approval Basically, Agnew said the $1000-a-plate fund raising meeting of GOP fat-cats at a view on the subject in a dinner in the windy city. Agnew spelled out his

a debate has raged over of war from Congress, a combat without a declaration body considered more recan send American boys into wifether the President alone Since the war in Vietnam sponsive to public opinion. There was never such a ty from Congress to do aldent Nixon cite the Gulf of Lyndon Johnson and Presinam war. Former President declaration during the Vietmost anything in Vietnam. Tonkin resolution as authori-forces have argued that the exceeded its war-making aupresidential candidate, and McGovern, the Democratic thority. White House has in Vietnam others in Congress, anti-war Led by Sen. George comes directly from our documents today. ty is in startling contrast and initiating foreign policy guage we find in important with the complicated lanwith this grave responsibilithe Constitution in treating Constitution. The brevity of sponsibility for developing "The President's sole re-Here is what Agnew said:

Constitution

ject reflects the realities of tion's simplicity on this sub-"Actually, the Constitu-drafted. "The United States then enemies by a long ship voyage, and the Founding Fafairly relaxed way. was separated from possible international problems in a thers reasonably could view nations face destruction hangs over the world: and ence of the nuclear age hand, the frightening pression to attack may be made. within minutes after a deci-"Today, on the other

"Because of the time limi-'Not by Consensus' tations, foreign policy cannot be conducted by consen-. "The complexity of the issues, coupled with the freto make vital policy judgquent need for secrecy, inhibits the formulation of an informed consensus in time minations are vested clearly nate that these critical deter-"Therefore, we are fortu-the time when it was in our President, rather than panel of experts. members of the professional bureaucracy, or an outside in the Congress, or the then rally the country to support his decision. to make hard choices and "A President must be able criticism. of strong, sometimes bitter, carry out policies in the face courage of his convictions of office, but for decades to sight to perceive the nationcome. He must have the or next week or for his term and once decided, the will to al interest - not just today "He must have the fore-

'Boldness Required'

required." firmness, even boldness, is quently favor timidity when the international scene fre-"Professional observers of free with advice. recommend often are very quences of the actions they sibilities for the conse-"Men who bear no respondent had listened to those Talks have had if the Presicritics who wanted to elimi-Strategic Arms Limitation nate our only incentives for the Soviet Union to negoti-"What chance would the the area? or attempted to give her abfire in the Middle East had olute military superiority in we either abandoned Israel "Would there be a cease - our South Vietnamese allies sive assault from the North negotiated settlement, could namization while seeking a of last March? have stood against the maspursued the policy of Viet-"Had President Nixon not meeting the most critical of the government of South drawn 510,000 American challenge of the entire war. Vietnam are successfully troops, yet today the forces "Richard Nixon has with-"Richard Nixon seized the opportunity and made his historic visits to Peking and contacts and brought about Moscow. He opened new new accords with old antagonists.

Withdrawals

courage. "The man must have emerging opportunities for a enough to break with the past when necessary to meet must be strong host of self-appointed counoften against the advice of a when the occasion demands. selors. "Yet, he must stand firm nation to press ahead with termination - the determiished and long-held values. progress, but to defend cher-"This man must have de-strate what we can confi first term amply demondently expect from his sec courage, and determination these qualities - vision The accomplishments of his "President Nixon has