

A Justice Dept. Report in Limbo

The Justice Department will not report until well after the presidential election whether it believes perjury was committed during the marathon hearings last spring on Attorney General Richard G. Kleindienst's nomination.

.....

[1751]

"There are lots of pages/to read," said John W. Hushen, the Justice Department's public information officer, when asked for an explanation for the delay.

.....