SFChronicle

DES 2 1972

He joshed his longtime friend, "Rebozo's 59; he looks like 80."

was born in Canton, China. Mr. Nixon also talked with the chef, Jimmy Hee, who it wasn't all relaxation when asked if it was a working dinner.

"The President is always meetings at the Florida White House but Colsen said

and crabmeat pate.
The President was taking

broiled Florida pompano lected cold stone crabs,

The presidential party se-

time out from two days of day and he wanted a picture with Mr. Nixon as a present. Mr. Nixon summoned the White House photographer.

out to a Coral Gables restaurant last night and later topped off his outing

Key Eiscayne, Fla.

President Nixon went the Chinese are the ablest people in the world," Mr. Nixon said. "I love the Chinese . . .

After dinner, the Presi dent.

Mr. Nixon was in high spirits as he dined with his Florida friend Charles G. (Bebe) Rebozo and White House counsel Charles Col-to frequent as Vice Presiice cream parlor he used with a nostalgic visit to an sen in a Spanish-style res-working," Colsen said.

A man who was dining at the restaurant told the President it was his 59th birth-

"The Hasta."

ice cream stand. dent drove over to a nearby

Rebozo went inside to purchase coconut ice cream topped with pineapple, a favorite concoction he said the President used to buy frequently when he was vice president.

with the early evening cus-Rebozo had to stand in line

"We used to have a little pull here," he said.

Associated Press