Ziegler Denies 'Post' Is Target

White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler yesterday vigorously denied a report by Jack Anderson that the White House had issued orders to "nail" The Washington Post.

Asked about the Anderson story yesterday, Ziegler said it was "flatly incorrect - wrong, wrong, wrong."

Declaring that there is "no validity" to the charge, Ziegler said "no one has issued orders to 'nail' The Washington Post. I unequivocally and specifically deny it."
