White House Aide

Denial of a 'Force-Out'

Miami - The White House confirmed yesterday that Dwight L. Chapin is leaving as President Nixon's appointments secretary, but denied that he was being forced out or that the move resulted from his reported links to political espionage by Republicans last year.

Ronald Ziegler, the President's press secretary, said Chapin has decided to accept a "fine" offer to join a private business in the spring.

. . . . .