

SEC Probe Figure Gave GOP $200,000

by Philip Greer

New York, Feb. 27 - Officials of President Nixon's re-election campaign last year solicited - and got - a secret $200,000 cash contribution from the key figure [Robert L. Vesco] in a Securities and Exchange Commission investigation of an alleged multimillion dollar international swindle, according to sworn testimony filed in federal court here today.

[Harry L. Sears, a New Jersey lawyer who headed the President's re-election campaign in New Jersey last year] said [Maurice Stans, who heads the Finance Committee to Re-elect the President] had asked that the contribution be in cash and that Edward Nixon, the President's brother, confirmed that the contribution was to be in cash.
