tant.
 The ceremony was performed by Judge Gerard J. O'Connell of the District Court of Spring Valley.
 The bride is the daughter of a prominent New York state developer.
 Scali, 42, was born in the Bronx and attended
 the White Plains High School. He worked in the White House as a press secretary in 1969 and 1970. He was the American representative to the United Nations in Geneva in 1971.
 He worked in Paris and Rome for the CIA and later tutored CIA personnel in Rome. He was a research assistant at the University of Maryland for the last five years. He was assistant to Hugh Downs, a columnist and bureau
 chief of the Washington Post.

The Scalis were honored by the bride's father and mother. The bride and groom had no guests.
 They had a honeymoon
 in the Bahamas and will return to New York Monday to live in the Waldorf Towers.
 This is the second marriage for Ambassador Scali and the first for the new Mrs.
