100

JUN 2.8 1973.

Washington

The Secret Service asked for all but $13,-289.19 of the nearly $2 buillion spent on President Nixon's homes in Califormia and Florida, director James J. Rowley told. Congress yesterday.

$154,500 spent at San Clemente and $101,517 at Key Biscayne. Fla., were for such items as shrubbery, gazebos, landscaping, gar-den supplies, fertilizer, golf carts, trimmer, "weed eat-er," lawn mower and a $23.90 wheelbarrow.

Figures supplied by the General Services Administration that about $702.367.20.21 San Clemente

Under questioning by the cret Service request included House Appropriations sub-ed four land surveys costing committee, which called him and GSA administrator

Sampson said revery per-Arthur F. Sampson to testify, Rowley said all the items the Secret Service requested were necessary to protect were necessary to protect the President.

San Clemente, without a Se-

Leonid I. Brezhnev had been Sampson said the $13, past weekend, he said, "you would have been after us."

United Press