

War Powers Bill Wins Again

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Senate refused again today to set aside a bill to limit the war powers of the President.

It defeated, 56 to 23, a substitute proposal by Sen. J. Glenn Beall Jr. (R-Md.) to appoint a 24-member national commission for a year-long study of the warmaking roles of Congress and the President.

The test was the second in two days indicating majority Senate support for legislation designed to implement the constitutional authority of Congress alone to declare war.

A final Senate vote on the bill was set for tomorrow.

The bill would limit the President's use of the armed forces to emergency defense against attack or threat of attack or rescue of Americans endangered abroad and then only for 30 days unless Congress consented.
