Tower of Trivia

OFF AND RUNNING: Comedienne Phyllis Diller filed for divorce in St. Louis, meaning that her marriage to Sherwood "Fang" Diller is dundee after 25 years, five children. Her next will be actor Ward Donavan, whom she met two yrs. ago when they co-starred in "Wonderful Town" in Chicago . . . Travel tip: Don't try to get first class reservations on BOAC Flight 583 from London to S.F. via N.Y. on Nov. 4. The entire first class section has been reserved for Princess Meg and Lord Tony, so they can kick off their shoes, put up their feet and relax . . . S.F.'s Paul (Red) Fay Jr., Undersecty. of the Navy under JFK, rec'd $4500 from ABC-TV for his pictures of the late President — used on the network's "Young Man From Boston" show last week—and donated the money to the Kennedy Memorial Library . . . Getting crowded around here: Donald MacMasters, Heiress Dolly Fritz's estranged husband, bumped head-on into Phil Fay Stevenson, one of Dolly's former swains, on Telegraph Hill the other day, and the temperature promptly plunged to zero (Dolly's Reno divorce comes up in Reno Aug. 30, and Donald has flown here from Paris to plot dark deeds with his lawyer, Emmet Hagerty) . . . Richard Nixon's tribute to Adlai Stevenson, as quoted by the AP: "In the graceful eloquence of his public statements, he had no peers and very few equals." Adlai used to refer to him as "Revolving Richard," but we may now change that to "Redundant Richard."
