Tricia to Wed? No! Well, Not Just Yet

By NAN ROBERTSON

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24

The White House backed and filled and finally fell silent today on reports that Tricia Nixon, the President's older daughter, would marry Edward Finch Cox, a Harvard Law student who has been a beau of Miss Nixon's for varying periods over the last six years.

Mr. Cox, son of a Manhattan and Westhampton family, has been squiring 24-year-old Tricia around with increasing frequency these last few months. There have been persistent re
Tary, Ronald L. Ziegler, pressed about 5 feet, 3 inches tall, weighs a shade under 100 pounds and has luxuriant blond the rumors at a morning briefing, he barked from leaving the briefing, he barked from leaving the briefing, he barked from leaving the briefing, he barked leaving the briefing, he barked from leaving the briefing, he barked leaving the briefing, he barked from leaving the briefing, he barked leaving the briefing, he barked leaving the briefing, he barked from leaving the briefing, he barked leaving the briefing, he barked from leaving the briefing, he barked leaving the briefing, he barked leaving the briefing, he barked from leaving the briefing, he barked from leaving the briefing, he barked lady in the brack to further inquiries that 1968.

An article in the early editions of the Philadelphia Inquirer today said that the couple announced their plans to the Nixon's Director of Camp David, the Presidential family retreat in Maryland.

Mr. Cox's father, reached by telephone in New York early today, said he was "sorry" but that he had "nothing" to talk about.

would marry Edward Finch Cox, a Harvard Law student who has been a beau of Miss Nixon's for varying periods over the dast six years.

Mr. Cox, son of a Manhattan and Westhampton family, has been squiring 24-year-old Tricia around with increasing frequency these last few months. There have been persistent reports over the years that the pair would wed.

The White House aide said last night that "it [the announcement] certainly could happen over the holidays" and that Tricia was "radiantly happy last week," when Mr. Cox, also 24, came down for the weekend.

Report Denied

Constance Stuart, Mrs. Nixon's staff and press director, later said: "We absolutely deny it. There is no imminent engagement to announce," and added: "If and when it happens, it will be announced by President and Mrs. Nixon."

Mr. Cox is the son of Army mrs. Nixon."

Mr. Cox is the son of Army mrs. Nixon."

Mr. Cox is the son of Army mrs. Nixon."

Mr. Cox is the son of Army mrs. Nixon."

Mr. Cox is the son of Army mrs. Nixon."

Col. and Mrs. Howard Ellis signed to the Governor's secutive announced by President and Mrs. Spiro There is no imminent engagement to announce," and added: "If and when it happens, it will be announced their plans to the Nixons solited and in the president Nixon's Director of Cox's father, reached by the communications, commented: "Mrs. Stuart did acknowledge that Mrs. Stuart did acknowledge that Mixon and Mrs. Ox's father, reached by "Mrs. Stuart did acknowledge that Mixon and Mrs. Cox's father, reached by "Mrs. Stuart did acknowledge that Mixon and Mrs. Cox's father, reached by "Mrs. Stuart did acknowledge that Mixon and Mrs. Spiro The Nixon and Mrs. Ox's father, reached by "Mrs. Stuart did acknowledge that Mixon and Mrs. Cox's father, reached by "Mrs. Stuart did acknowledge that Mixon and Mrs. Spiro The Nixon's younger daught. The Nixon's younger daught. The Nixon's younger daught. The Nixon's younger daught. The Nixon's staff and press director, later and when both were 20 years old. They the Mrs. Mixon's Spiro The Mi