

MOOD ACROSS THE NATION: DISCOURAGEMENT BUT NOT DESPERATION

by James M. Naughton
Special to The New York Times

Washington, Jan. 21 -

A number of those interviewed said they would not take the trouble to write a letter to Mr. Nixon. "He isn't real and his family isn't real either," Mrs. Wesley Orr, wife of a Detroit office worker, said. "With all the problems of the country, he picks John Wayne and Joe Namath for heroes."

.....

(Clipping not kept.)