
Engagement Plans for Tricia

New York

President and Mrs. Nixon are expected to announce the engagement of their daughter Tricia to Harvard law student Edward Finch Cox at a gathering at the White House on March 16 when the First Lady celebrates her 59th birthday, it was learned yesterday.

It was disclosed that the Nixons, barring a change in plans, will announce the wedding date for their daughter, which will probably be around June 12.

Informed sources said the White House has been holding off an announcement until Mrs. Nixon's 59th birthday, although the pressure and the rumors of the pending betrothal have been building up for weeks.
