 Andreas Papandreou, a former Cabinet minister in Greece, has been deprived of his Greek citizenship for "anti-Greek acts." Mr. Pa-pandreou, in self-exile in Toronto, did not seem disturbed by the deprivation.
 "I'm very pleased to be given this honor," he declared.

Edward Nixon

President Nixon became interested in politics as a boy and told his mother, after reading about the Teapot Dome oil scandals of the 1920's, that he wanted to be an honest lawyer, the man said. "He's still what his close friends know him to be," the man, who works for a Seattle, Wash., oceanog-
 "He's attained a position which for him is natural."
 Who could know that much about the President? His 41-year-old brother, Edward Nixon.
