

Nixon Is Host to Quakers

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (UPI)—President Nixon returned this morning from Camp David, Md., and was host to another in a series of White House church services, this one the first conducted in his own Quaker faith. Several hundred guests, including Government officials, sports figures and entertainers, gathered in the East Room with the Nixons for the 40-minute service.