

A Devilish Remark

Pat Nixon was moved to a full-scale laugh yesterday at the Women's National Republican Club luncheon in New York. The gagster was ex-Attorney General John N. Mitchell who told the ladies that there is about as much connection with the Republican convention going to San Diego and the ITT antitrust suits as there is between the Lord and the devil."

—AP Photo