

□ filed Nix Ad

Memo to the President

by Richard J. Whalen

..... John Ehrlichman once stated your position on a proposed domestic program and a highly placed member of your official family challenged him, saying the statement contradicted what he knew of your philosophy.

Ehrlichman informed the stunned questioner that you didn't have any philosophy - that you did what was feasible and tactically shrewd. ....