

Kissinger Asserts War Won't Impair Summit Meeting

by Robert B. Semple Jr.

Salzburg, Austria, May 21 - ..... Despite the [unusually] tight security precautions, Mr. Nixon surprised his staff shortly before he left his residence for the hotel by stepping into the crowd at the gate. Mr. Nixon shook hands and recalled that he had been in Salzburg at Christmastime in 1956. He spoke briefly to an elderly woman, admired a child being held up by her father and remarked, "We have two daughters."
