
Nixon Eats A Lot of Caviar

Moscow

President Nixon has abandoned his habitual cottage cheese luncheons in favor of Russian black caviar, White House aides said yesterday.

"The President is lapping up caviar and butter on brown bread," one of the aides said.

Mr. Nixon keeps his weight down at the White House by having spartan luncheons of cottage cheese every day. Even on trips he has been known to adhere to that diet.

United Press
