

Nixon Nominated for Nobel

Washington - Senator Henry Bellmon (Rep - OKLA) yesterday formally nominated President Nixon as a candidate for the Nobel Peace Prize.

Bellmon, a member of the Interparliamentary Union and thus qualified to nominate a candidate, made the nomination in a letter to the Norwegian Nobel Committee in Oslo, Norway.

"In my judgment, President Nixon's 1972 record of initiatives and accomplishments, in pursuit of an honorable, meaningful and lasting era of world peace, is unsurpassed by that of any other statesman in this century," Bellmon wrote.

Associated Press