

Tax Return

By Hand

Washington

President Nixon's tax return has been filed by special delivery to the commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service.

The White House said yesterday that the hand delivery, traditional for Presidents, was made last Thursday.

A White House spokesman declined to say whether the President or his wife signed the forms allowing a $1 tax deduction for contributions to presidential campaigns.

Associated Press

---