

From testimony before Ervin committee (morning session), of Lt. Gen. Vernon A. Walters:

Sen. Herman E. Talmadge: General Walters, for how long and in what capacity have you known President Nixon?

Walters: I have known President Nixon, I believe, Senator, since 1957. As I testified earlier, I served as his interpreter during a trip he made through eight countries in South America. Subsequently I saw him only on the anniversary of the stoning in Caracas where the car was attacked by a mob. He used to give a party during the time he was [one or two words garbled] in the years he was Vice President. He used to give a party once a year. I went to that. In the years between Mr. Nixon's departure from the White House and his re-election as President I saw him perhaps three times in those eight or nine - or whatever it was - years. After Mr. Nixon became President I accompanied him on two trips around Europe .....
