

Pat Nixon 'Proud' Of the Speech

[Mrs. Nixon, after watching Nixon's address on television in White House family quarters, calls her press secretary, Helen ~~Smith~~ McCain Smith, who says Mrs. Nixon sounded "very happy and very proud." Quotes her as saying Nixon "spoke from the heart and it went to the hearts of the American people, and says she conveyed the feeling that "Watergate is behind us now."]