

from column by Charles McCabe:

"Mr. Nixon is an essentially rootless man. He couldn't care less for tradition. His essential pieties can be embraced by the sign in his assistant Chuck Colson's office: 'Get 'em by the ---, and their minds and hearts will follow.'"