

UPI Telephoto

Pat's Friends

Pat Nixon visited a gymnastics school in Moscow yesterday where children aged 7 and older performed for her. 'Well, that was good,' Mrs. Nixon said, as she gathered all the children around her and hugged one of the performers. Mrs. Nixon's plans to visit the Central Farmers Market had been canceled and she went to the gymnastics school instead.