Greek Businessman Joins Ford Camp as Fund-Raiser

Washington, Dec. 8 (UPI) - ....

.....
Thomas Pappas, who holds dual United States and Greek citizenship, has been investigated by the Senate and House Select committees on intelligence for alleged involvement in contributions from Greek military dictators to the 1968 and 1972 Presidential campaigns of Richard M. Nixon and Spiro T. Agnew.

.....
A House committee investigator said, "We couldn't pin anything on Pappas. But he was in the background."

.....
Presidential transcripts made public in connection with the Senate Watergate investigation indicated that Mr. Pappas was the first man Mr. Nixon, [Dhrlichman and Mitchell] thought of contacting to raise the hush money demanded by E. Howard Hunt....

.....
And there have been reports that the [CIA] contributed to the Nixon-Agnew campaign by sending money to the dictatorship's intelligence service, KYP, which then gave it to Mr. Pappas. A House investigator said the agency denied the allegations.
