

Pat Nixon Ends Her 5-Day Hospital Stay

Long Beach

Former first lady Pat Nixon, 66, was released yesterday from Memorial Hospital Medical Center where she spent the past three days undergoing treatment for a respiratory ailment.

Mrs. Nixon was treated for acute viral asthmatic bronchitis, said Dr. John Lungren, her personal physician. He added that she successfully responded to therapy.

Mrs. Nixon entered the hospital Monday.

United Press