Dallas, April 9 (AP)- The 6-month-old daughter of Marina Oswald, whose husband was accused of assassinating President Kennedy, was baptized in quiet rites at Dallas today.

The child, Rachael, was immersed in water at the Saint Seraphim Eastern Orthodox Church by Father Dimitri Royster, who also baptized Marina's three-year-old daughter, Junie, last spring.

Marina, the widow of Lee Harvey Oswald, attends the church.

Marina, looking frail, wore a simple yellow dress for the ceremony. She was accompanied by Mrs. Decklin Ford, who often serves ~~her~~ as her interpreter.

Marina came to the United States from Russia after marrying Oswald. She speaks some English.
