

Newspaper Guild Blasts Mitchell

Boston

Some 220 delegates at the American Newspaper Guild convention have called for the "dismissal or resignation" of Attorney General John N. Mitchell.

The members approved unanimously a resolution accusing Mitchell of an "attack on the constitutional guarantees of free press and free speech" while "includes the incredible actions of the government in attempting to muzzle newspapers in the Pentagon papers cases."

Associated Press