Angela Says 'Fascist Bullets'

Angela Davis said last night George Jackson was killed by "fascist bullets" after his bloody San Quentin prison escape attempt Saturday.

"For me, George's death has meant the loss of a comrade and revolutionary leader, but also the loss of an ir-retrievable love," Miss Davis said in a statement released from her Marin county jail cell.

Miss Davis, 27, is charged with murder-kidnap-conspiracy in the Marin Civic Center shooting of August, 1970.
